

Vote YES for Police Accountability on November 5th!

Police oversight in Rochester is broken.
The police cannot police themselves.

On Nov. 5th City residents will vote for a historic referendum to establish an
INDEPENDENT civilian oversight board.

Your vote has the power to bring true
accountability to Rochester.

Contact us at alliance.pab@gmail.com for more information or visit our website at pabnow.com.

Vote YES on the back of the ballot
for Police Accountability on Nov. 5th!

PABnow.com

Vote YES for Police Accountability on November 5th!

Police oversight in Rochester is broken.
The police cannot police themselves.

On Nov. 5th City residents will vote for a
historic referendum to establish an
INDEPENDENT civilian oversight board.

Your vote has the power to bring true
accountability to Rochester.

Contact us at alliance.pab@gmail.com for more
information or visit our website at pabnow.com.

Vote YES on the back of the ballot
for Police Accountability on Nov. 5th!

PABnow.com

From 2001 to 2016, civilians filed 923 allegations of excessive force against RPD.

The Chief of Police found officers guilty in only 16 of the 923 allegations.

No officers were fired as a result of these complaints

The PAB will break the conflict of interest in our current system.

No longer will outcomes be dependent on RPD officers investigating their colleagues and the Chief of Police deciding cases.

Just like every other public worker, police need to be held responsible when they break the public's trust.

Rochester will join Syracuse, NYC, and many other cities which already have strong police accountability boards.

Vote YES on the back of the ballot for Police Accountability on November 5th!

PABnow.com

From 2001 to 2016, civilians filed 923 allegations of excessive force against RPD.

The Chief of Police found officers guilty in only 16 of the 923 allegations.

No officers were fired for excessive force during this time.

The PAB would break the conflict of interest in our current system.

No longer would outcomes be dependent on RPD officers investigating their colleagues and the Chief of Police deciding cases.

Just like every other public worker, police need to be held responsible when they break the public's trust.

Rochester would join Syracuse, NYC, and many other cities which already have strong police accountability boards.

Vote YES on the back of the ballot for Police Accountability on November 5th!

PABnow.com